

Monday, July 10, 2023
Monday of the Fourteenth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Genesis 28:10-22, Psalm 91, and Matthew 9:18-26. God is always with us. Our readings are precise incidents that grab us at the core of our faith. Jacob is running from his twin brother Esau after tricking his father for the blessing. God spoke to Jacob in a dream, "Know that I am with you; I will protect you wherever you go, and bring you back to this land." An official comes forward who asks Jesus to come and bless his dead daughter, "Come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." A woman suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years touched Jesus' cloak. Jesus healed her, "Courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you." God meets us where we are, faith leads us to hope and healing, and Jesus brings us to new life.

Peace,

RevKev

"In you, my God, I place my trust."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>