

Thursday, July 13, 2023
Thursday of the
Fourteenth Week in
Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We celebrate Saint Henry. We read Genesis 44:18-21, 23-29; 45:1-5, Psalm 105, and Matthew 10:7-15. Joseph tells his brothers, "It was for the sake of saving lives that God sent me here ahead of you." Jesus said to his Apostles, "As you go, make this proclamation: 'The Kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" How can we live dependent upon one another? As followers of Jesus can we open our doors for a disciple? Do we welcome disciples into our midst? Do we listen to the announcement they make and the words they speak? How is this lived out in our world today? Can we see that the experiences we carry can be helpful to save lives no matter if they were good or bad? We continue the work of the Lord by living in God's peace and sharing it wherever we go. Some may accept it others may not. We do not lose heart but find joy in the fact that we are living the will of God.

Peace,
RevKev

<http://www.bible.usccb.org>: "Remember the marvels the Lord has done."