

Wednesday, July 19, 2023
Wednesday of the Fifteenth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read from Exodus 3:1-6, 9-12, Psalm 103, and Matthew 11:25-27.

Curiosity brought Moses to God as he saw the burning bush and moved toward it. God called out to Moses, using his name. Has curiosity led you to God? Have you seen anything unusual and amazing and were able to see God's hand at work? Too often we analyze situations and cannot see the simplicity and beauty that are behind them. Jesus proclaims in prayer today the fact that "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to the childlike." Children have great curiosity and love to explore. We lose that curiosity along the way and think we have become "wise and learned." Moses doubted his call yet God guaranteed God would be with him. We will walk with Moses in the days ahead so let's put on a child-like attitude and see what God can do for us.

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord is kind and merciful."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>