

Tuesday, July 21, 2020:
Tuesday of the Sixteenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Lawrence of Brindisi. Our readings come from Micah 7:14-15, 18-20, Psalm 85 and Matthew 12:46-50. Are you a brother, sister, mother to Jesus? Jesus says, "For whoever does the will of my heavenly Father is my brother, and sister, and mother." Micah praises God and paints a picture of God's mercy and love. Micah writes, "You will cast into the depths of the sea all our sins." If the Lord does so, why would we go in after them? Our God is faithful and removes guilt and pardons sins, what liberty one can find in the Lord. So, why do we hold one to our sins and the sins of others? "Show us, O Lord, your kindness, and grant us your salvation." Rejoice today that you have found a place in the Lord's family, which is forgiving and welcoming.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"Lord, show us your mercy and love."