Thursday of the Sixteenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Bridget of Sweden. Our readings come from Jeremiah 2:1-3, 7-8, 12-13, Psalm 36, and Matthew 13:10-17. Do we hear and understand? Do we look and see? Are our cisterns filled or empty? What can our hearts comprehend? We yearn for something in life. We are drawn to something greater. Have we asked the right questions? Have we come up empty on our own initiatives? Where is the faith of our youth? "With you is the fountain of life, O Lord." May we drink again of this fountain, may we splash with delight in its coolness, may we find shelter in the shadow of your wings and may we truly see your light that leads the way.

Peace,
