

Monday, July 27, 2020:
Monday of the Seventeenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we read from Jeremiah 13:1-11, Deuteronomy 32:18-21 and Matthew 13:31-35. Sometimes, even without noticing, we might find that we have rotted a little. We wandered away from the Lord and found ourselves following strange gods. We knew how close we were to the Lord, how could this have happened? When we realize how we have wandered, we need to be patient with ourselves and allow the seed of faith to grow again in us. Like the mustard seed or the yeast, we need time to reestablish ourselves in the Lord. Hopefully, we have not gotten to the point of being "good for nothing." What is our destiny? Are we on the path to achieve it?

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"You have forgotten God who gave you birth."