

Wednesday, July 29, 2020:
Wednesday of the Seventeenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Martha. Our readings come from Jeremiah 15:10, 16-21, Psalm 59 and John 11:19-27 or Luke 10:38-42. Do you ever feel alone in your endeavors? Do you ever feel like no one understands what you are doing? Jeremiah has complained to the Lord and the Lord responds. Overall it is not easy to follow the Lord yet alone be a prophet. Martha is often misinterpreted in scripture as being too busy yet she is a woman of faith and dedication. Many of us can relate to Martha or Jeremiah, we strive to do what we do and often feel alone in what we are doing. We find our strength in the Lord, the Lord is the one who brings light into our lives. Jesus is life and all who believe in him will have the light of life.

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"God is my refuge on the day of distress."