

Friday, July 31, 2020:
Thursday of the Seventeenth Week
in Ordinary Time

Catholic Church

215 South 8th Street
Minneapolis, MN 55402

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Ignatius of Loyola. Our readings come from Jeremiah 26:1-9, Psalm 69 and Matthew 13:54-58. Sometimes people do not like to hear what one has to say. Have you ever been that person? Have you listened to someone who you thought was way off the wall? Jeremiah and Jesus both meet rejection in the readings we hear today. Jeremiah is charged with saying, "If you disobey me, not living according to the law I place before you and not listening to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send you constantly though you do not obey them, I will treat this house like Shiloh." Jesus in his native place is not accepted and people take offense at him because he is a local boy, "Where did he get such wisdom and mighty deeds?" Who do we need to listen to? Who are the prophets of today? Will God use you? Who may God put in your path?

Peace,

RevKev

<http://www.usccb.org/>"Lord, in your great love, answer me."