Tuesday of the Seventeenth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Alphonsus Mary Liguori. We read Exodus 33:7-11; 34:5b-9, 28, Psalm 103, and Matthew 13:36-43. The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and fidelity; blessing for thousands of generations, punishing from the second to the fourth generation. Our actions have consequences, mostly good, some not so good. Continue to live as children of the Kingdom, being blessed and blessing others, knowing that the children of the evil one continue to dwell around us. God is good, Jesus loves you and the Holy Spirit will guide us all into this new month where we can bring light, mercy, kindness, and love into the world. Blessings to you in this month of August.

Peace,

"The Lord is kind and merciful."
