

Wednesday, August 2, 2023
Wednesday of the Seventeenth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Eusebius of Vercelli and Saint Peter Julian Eymard.

We read Exodus 34:29-35, Psalm 99, and Matthew 13:44-46. Where do you find your treasure? Is it something external or internal? What are you willing to do to maintain this treasure? Can you see in others the power of prayer and service? When you are praying or serving the Lord, do you feel "radiant"? Can you see this in yourself or others? The Lord has messages for all of us. When we listen, we find a great "pearl", and a sense of self-worth. We are all gifts in many ways, God wants to have us guide others to find their treasure within. Together, we can heed the parables of Jesus who reveals to us what is hidden from the foundation of the world, namely, God's presence with us.

Peace,

RevKev

"Holy is the Lord our God."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>