Good Morning!

Today we celebrate the Transfiguration of the Lord. Our readings come from Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14, Psalm 97, 2 Peter 1:16-19 and Matthew 17:1-9. The voice from the cloud spoke, "This is my Son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased." Peter reminds us, "You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts." The feast of the Transfiguration allows us to journey to the mountain and be with Jesus as he appears with Moses and Elijah. The revelation is always enlightening and Jesus' words, "Rise, and do not be afraid," touch our hearts in many different ways today. Where has fear entered and taken over in your life? Where does Jesus touch you today to heal or comfort you? Many will experience moments of that touch today. Let your fear go and know Jesus walks with you always.

Peace,

RevKev
