Good Morning!

We celebrate Saint Stephen of Hungary. We read Ezekiel 28:1-10, Deuteronomy 32:26-36, and Matthew 19:23-30. Have you ever tried to do something great and it fell short in your mind? Yet, you may have done something little and it took off and became resourceful for someone. Many times, we may not know how our actions affect others. When we think we are doing something great and make ourselves out to be something we are not, we fall into self-aggrandizement. The prince of Tyre has become too big for his britches. Ezekiel delivers a message. Jesus offers words of wisdom and truth. What have you been given? Do you use it for the common good or simply for yourself? We are called to give up for the Lord and in return will receive a hundred times more and will inherit eternal life. Jesus says, "But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first." Any thoughts today?

Peace,

RevKev
