Thursday of the Twentieth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We read Ezekiel 36:23-28, Psalm 51, and Matthew 22:1-14. We have been invited, we have accepted the invitation, and now how do we dress for the occasion? We have been sprinkled, we have been cleansed, and a new heart and spirit have been placed in us. How are we accepting this newness and allowing it to take hold in our lives? Are you preparing yourself for the Kingdom of God as you live your life? We may have been through ups and downs but God has never left us. God wants us home one day and, in the meantime, do we live with that same expectation? How can we become closer to the Lord? Can we spend more time in prayer, serving others, and being grateful for what we have? Walk with the Lord joyfully today and if you hear God's voice, harden not your hearts.

Peace,

RevKev
