Good Morning!

We celebrate the Queenship of Mary. We read 2 Thessalonians 1:1-5, 11-12, Psalm 96, and Matthew 23:13-22. (Or Isaiah 9:1-6, Psalm 113, and Luke 1:26-38.) The challenge before us today is recognizing the gift of Jesus in our lives. How do we portray Jesus in our lives? Do we live as authentic Christians, allowing who Jesus is to come through in our words or actions? Or are we at times like the scribes and Pharisees who Jesus challenges in Luke's gospel? We know that Mary said "yes" to bringing Jesus into the world and stood by him throughout his life. We too can bring Jesus into the world and proclaim the good news. Who do we lead? Who do we follow? May we walk our talk today and not be blind guides for those around us or in our charge.

Peace,

RevKev
