Tuesday of the Twenty Fifth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

Today we celebrate St. Louis and St. Joseph Calasanz. Our readings come from 2 Thessalonians 2:1-3a, 14-17, Psalm 96 and Matthew 23:23-26. Who are you really? Does your outward appearance and actions match what is in your heart and on your mind? Our readings today challenge us, as they will all week, to look within and coordinate what is in our hearts and on our minds with our actions. We are challenged to put what our faith calls from us into action. Paul writes, "May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word." Jesus challenges, "Cleanse first the inside of the cup, so that the outside also may be clean." May we be true to the faith we have been granted and we have chosen both inside and out so others may know the wonders of God.

Peace,

RevKev
