

Tuesday, September 12, 2023
Tuesday of the Twenty-Third
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate the Most Holy Name of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We read Colossians 2:6-15, Psalm 145, and Luke 6:12-19. Jesus' healing power flows to us in prayer, in the celebration of the Eucharist, and from our submission to following Christ in all that we do. Jesus forgave all of our transgressions when he was nailed to the cross, and now we are called, as ordinary people, to live the mission that Jesus set out before us. Whether Apostles, disciples, or ordinary people we are strengthened in God's grace to walk in faith, love one another, and serve as we are called. The temptation is to live according to the seductive tradition of humanity and the elemental powers of the world and not according to Christ, Paul says. Recognizing the gift of faith, the gift of healing and freedom, and the gift of our calls, we can allow the light of Jesus to shine through us and bear the fruit we are meant to bear.

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord is compassionate towards all his works."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>