

Friday, September 15, 2023
Friday of the Twenty-Third
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Our Lady of Sorrows. We read 1 Timothy 1:1-2, 12-14, Psalm 16, and John 19:25-27 or Luke 2:33-35. You and I have been called. We are choosing to follow Jesus in our lives. Following Jesus has its ups and downs, and we know from yesterday's feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, that Jesus' suffering won us salvation. Mary stood at the foot of the cross and in horror watched her son die. In compassion, Jesus gives us his mother from the cross. Mary understands our every need and watches over us from heaven as a mother would. We invite God into our suffering and thank God for our blessings. May we persevere in our daily lives, knowing our ups and downs gain us strength and wisdom, as we live each day towards eternal life. Know you are loved!

Peace,
RevKev

"You are my inheritance, O Lord."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>