Friday of the Twenty-Fourth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read 1 Timothy 6:2-12, Psalm 49, and Luke 8:1-3. Jesus journeyed preaching and proclaiming, many came to believe and to follow. We have become believers through many different avenues. Being believers, we are invited to review our own practices. Where do we put our energies? Are they focused on worldly ways such as the love of money or lived out through our relationship with God and others? Paul invites us to pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Which do you do well? Which might you need to practice a little bit more?

Peace,

RevKev
