

Monday, September 25, 2023
Monday of the Twenty-Fifth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read from Ezra 1:1-6, Psalm 126, and Luke 8:16-18. Coming together as a community is a beautiful event, especially when one is invited to work together to bring a project to fulfillment. Cyrus, the king of Persia, issued a proclamation from the Lord God. Those whose lamps were lit listened and prepared. How lit is your lamp? Is it shining brightly or has it dimmed? Do others see in you your following the invitation from the Lord to be part of a community of believers, to share your gifts, and to know that our participation brightens Jesus' light in the world? May the light shine on our gifts and expose those areas where change is needed. Be blessed and share those blessings with others.

Peace,
RevKev

"The Lord has done marvels for us."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>