Friday of the Twenty-Fifth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We read Ecclesiastes 3:1-11, Psalm 144, and Luke 9:18-22. Today, reality sets in. What is the purpose of our living, of life? Everything has its time and place, and we are part of this time and place. Jesus asks, "Who do you say that I am?" In this time and place, who do you say Jesus is, and how do you see Jesus interacting in our time? Jesus rebuked Peter for calling him "The Christ of God." Jesus then proceeds to announce that he must suffer, be rejected, be killed, and on the third day be raised. What must be going through their heads? We know the story, and the story continues, recognizing that through our own sufferings and rejections, Jesus walks with us to bring new life into us. Work and live in the mystery of God, the timeless workings which God has done.

Peace,
