Good Morning!

Today we read from 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-27, Psalm 84, and Luke 6:39-42. Again today we are challenged by our scripture readings to clean up our own act before we challenge others to do so in their lives. Jesus says, "Remove the wooden beam from your eye first, then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye." Jesus also invites us to see who it is we are following. "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? Paul writes that we must be committed to what we believe and preach what we must follow as well. Faith is wonderful but also a mystery. The practical points we receive today are to truly examine our lives to see that we are living in truth and that we lead others in truth by words and actions. Walk in sincerity and you will see how generous God can be.

Peace,

RevKev
