

Friday, October 6, 2023
Friday of the Twenty-Sixth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Bruno and Blessed Marie-Rose Durocher. We read Baruch 1:15-22, Psalm 79, and Luke 10:13-16. Heeding the voice of God! One must ponder in our world today; do we heed the voice of God or are we off after the devices of our own hearts? Have attitudes changed with experience over the centuries? How long does God stay patient with us? Jesus sets out a warning to Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum. Shall we listen?

Peace,

RevKev

"For the glory of your name, O Lord, deliver us."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>