Monday of the Twenty-Eighth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Hedwig and Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque. We read Romans 1;1-7, Psalm 98, and Luke 11;29-32. Have we listened to Jesus? Do we reflect on God's word? Jesus challenges those who wish a sign from him to remember the queen of the south and Jonah. God's message was received by those outside the current circles and they repented and believed. Who will judge us at the time of judgment? Paul begins his Letter to the Romans, establishing his relationship with Jesus Christ as he reaches out to the Gentiles. God's word and the story of Jesus goes out to many. How are you invited to live the word? To whom will you bring the Good News of Jesus Christ today? Be open to the invitation as you live into your day.

Peace,

RevKev
