

Monday, October 23, 2023
Monday of the Twenty-Ninth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint John of Capistrano. We read Romans 4:20-25, Luke 1:69-75, and Luke 12:13-21. How do you share in your life with others? Do we see our lives as gifts from God? Paul writes, "Abraham did not doubt God's promise in unbelief; rather, he was empowered by faith and gave glory to God and was fully convinced that what God had promised he was able to do." Paul states that "this was not just credited to Abraham but also to us, who believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead." May we pray for an increase in faith, rather than wealth. Let us share in our gift of life that has been given to us with those around us who may need some encouragement, comfort, support, or understanding. Jesus gives us food for thought, does it satisfy your hunger?

Peace,

RevKev

"Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; he comes to his people."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>