

Wednesday, October 25, 2023
Wednesday of the Twenty-Ninth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Romans 6:12-18, Psalm 124, and Luke 12:39-48. How much have you been entrusted with? When the faithful and prudent servant was put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time, yet failed to do so because the master was delayed, he was beaten upon the master's return because he failed to make the preparations. We have been entrusted with much. Sometimes the world and worldly ways distract us. Sin tempts us to become slaves to pleasure, greed, distrust, and desire for power. We have been freed from the slavery of sin and walk with obedient hearts to the pattern of teaching we have received. We know Jesus will return, we know not when it will be. Therefore, are we prepared in a way that we live with that expectation, using what we have been given for the good of many? Keep your eyes focused on the heavens as we walk this earthly journey and encounter the challenges that life hands to us.

Peace,

RevKev

"Our help is in the name of the Lord."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>