Friday of the Twenty-Ninth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Romans 7:18-25, Psalm 119, and Luke 12:54-59. Jesus is point on!

Jesus asks, "Why do you not know how to interpret the present time? Why do you not judge for yourself what is right?" All we have to do is listen to the news, look around and maybe we need to fall to our knees and pray.

Paul speaks of the personal struggles he deals with his inner and exterior self. Grace comes to us from God and the strength grace provides allows us to overcome sin and do good. Even though we want to do good, we do not always do so. Pray today for the world. We need all the prayers we can get!

Peace,

RevKev

"Lord, teach me your statutes."
