

Monday, October 30, 2023
Monday of the Thirtieth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Romans 8:12-17, Psalm 68, and Luke 13:10-17. For eighteen years the woman whom Jesus healed had been crippled by a spirit. Rather than rejoicing with the crowds, the leader of the synagogue was indignant that Jesus had cured the woman on the Sabbath. The woman did not ask to be healed, Jesus looked with compassion and did so for her. Jesus was led by the Spirit as we are called to be led by the Spirit of God. Paul writes, "The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God."

We look out for one another and when moved by the Spirit, we reach out to others and with compassion lead them to healing, to strength, to hope, to growth or we allow others to reach out to us. Let us rejoice at the splendid deeds done by Jesus in our lives and the lives of others.

Peace,

RevKev

"Our God is the God of salvation."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>