

Friday, November 10, 2023
Friday of the Thirty-First
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Leo the Great. We read Romans 15:14-21, Psalm 98, and Luke 16:1-8. Where can we go where they have never been told of Jesus so they can hear and understand? Are there places in today's world? Maybe people have heard of Jesus but they do not understand because they have had no one to share with them or explain to them who Jesus really is. We have had our experiences and some of us, like the steward in today's gospel, have changed our ways or been creative in resolving our issues, so as to make amends with God. We hear in the Psalm, "All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God." Does that mean our work is done? No, there is still plenty to do. What role can you serve in this generation?

Peace,

RevKev

"The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>