Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini. We read Wisdom 1:1-7, Psalm 139, and Luke 17:1-6. "Where can I go from your spirit? From your presence where can I flee?" Psalm 139 draws us into the marvel of God's relationship with us. It is so wonderful. Wisdom grants us guidance in our lives and offers us great strength and insight. Jesus teaches against sin and the sinner yet offers forgiveness if there is repentance. God has rested his hand upon us. God searches and scrutinizes us. God loves us so much, that even when we try to distance ourselves from God, God will be near. God's hand guides us in and through life as we try to live and figure out how to live the journey. Wisdom states, "The Spirit of the Lord fills the world, is all-embracing, and knows us well." As we are guided, may we guide others to the truth of life, not sin, and be refreshed and renewed to forgive and be forgiven constantly and freely.

Peace,

RevKev

"Guide me, Lord, along the everlasting way."
