Friday of the Thirty-Second
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Elizabeth of Hungary. We read Wisdom 13:1-9, Psalm 19, and Luke 17:26-37. Who is the artisan of your life and of all things? How marvelous are the works, who is the creator? Do you see the handiwork of the creator? To whom do you attribute all these works? If we see God's hand in all of creation then we know that our lives are not our own. We praise and thank God for what we have been given. For when we do not see what comes from God, we look to others as the creator. We cannot look back but continue to move forward on the path God has created for us. There are many roads but the one that leads to a more fulfilling life calls for discernment. Wisdom is here to help.

Peace,

RevKev
