

Monday, November 20, 2023
Monday of the Thirty-Third
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read 1 Maccabees 1:10-15, 41-43, 54-57, 62-63, Psalm 119, and Luke 18:35-43. What can we see through the blind man who now sees? Perhaps we are like those who were walking in front and rebuked the blind man and told him to be silent. He cried out even louder, "Son of David, have pity on me!" He wanted to see and Jesus opened his eyes. Where is it that we have become blind? From the book of Maccabees, we might ponder where our society and culture have gone, and how we have collectively become blind. Have we turned away from the covenant? Have we allowed secular culture to infiltrate our way of life? What do we need to ask Jesus for if he asks, "What do you want me to do for you?" Maybe we all need to cry out, "Son of David, have pity on us!"

Peace,

RevKev

"Give me life, O Lord, and I will do your commands."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>