Thirty-Fourth Week
in Ordinary Time

Good Morning!

We read Daniel 5:1-6, 13-14, 16-17, 23-28, Daniel 3:62-67, and Luke 21:12-19. "The writing is on the wall." Daniel has a task to do and does it well. Daniel interpreted the writing on the wall, but it was not what King Belshazzar wanted to hear. Jesus speaks challenging words to the crowds. There are parts of the world, like Nigeria, where attending Church is risky. Would you choose to go if you knew it was a life-or-death risk? We are in God's hands and trust that the Holy Spirit will provide in every situation. Perseverance will secure our lives, Jesus says. We enter into these days knowing we may be challenged in our faith, but no worries, trust that the Lord will provide. We have much to be thankful for!

Peace,
