

Monday, November 27, 2023
Monday of the Thirty-Fourth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Daniel 1:1-6, 8-20, Daniel 3:52-56, and Luke 21:1-4. We have arrived at the last week in Ordinary Time. As we prepare to conclude a yearly cycle and enter into a new season with Advent fast approaching, we take time to reflect on this past year in our faith lives. Have we given all that we could to the Lord and to others? Have we remained strong and committed to the beliefs of our faith? Daniel and his companions have been chosen for the king's service and are able to maintain the strength they find in faith with defilement. The widow gives from her livelihood while others give of their surplus. At least all are giving! May we find strength from faith, contentment in giving, and peace from others.

Peace,
RevKev

"Glory and praise forever!"

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>