

Friday, December 1, 2023
Friday of the Thirty-Fourth
Week in Ordinary Time

Good morning!

We read Daniel 7:2-14, Daniel 3:75-81, and Luke 21:29-33. We are in the last days of this year. Advent begins tomorrow evening, a new year, a new year of grace. We look for signs of new life as the world darkens around us. We look for signs of hope as wars continue and killings happen. The word of God is living and effective. Jesus speaks words of truth and grace. We are challenged and tempted to read into the times and look to the skies. We await a new heaven and a new earth, we know Jesus is at our side, walking with us. We know the message is always before us. Do not give in to despair, be afraid, or lose hope. Jesus is coming but in the meantime, we live with hope, with joy, and working for peace among all peoples. We thank God for the blessings this year has brought as we await a new year which Advent brings.

Peace,

RevKev

"Give glory and eternal praise to him!"

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>