

December 6, 2023
Wednesday of the
First Week of Advent

Good morning!

We celebrate Saint Nicholas. I hope you encountered gifts waiting for you in your shoes this morning! We read Isaiah 25:6-10, Psalm 23, and Matthew 15:29-37. What a treat today's readings bring to us. We walk towards the mountain of the Lord, we pray that we may see beyond the veil that veils all people, to see the goodness of the Lord and have our eyes opened to the goodness in the other. Jesus cures, Jesus feeds, Jesus is moved with pity, and Jesus satisfies. What hope we find in Jesus, in faith, and love. Share today in the blessings you have received. Encounter surprises in healing, feeding, and caring. Be kind to others as you surprise them with love and hope. Trust that the little you might have, by loosening the grasp on it, Jesus will multiply your blessing and reward you abundantly in return.

Peace,

RevKev

"Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace forever."

<http://www.bible.usccb.org/>