Wednesday, the Fourth Day of Christmas

Good morning!

We celebrate The Holy Innocents, Martyrs. We read 1 John 1:5-2:2, Psalm 124, and Matthew 2:13-18. We remember the innocents who lost their lives and their parents who wept for them. The world walks in darkness and light. We have sinned and know God's mercy. We can recognize our own faults and jealousies yet rejoice that in Jesus we have expiation for our sins and the sins of the whole world. Even in pain and grief, we can celebrate and hope for restoration. "God is light, and in God, there is no darkness at all." May we turn to the Lord and attune our hearts to God's voice that will guide us in life. We all desire to be on the path with the Lord, it takes time and patience, hope and comfort, struggles and peace. No matter where you are in life today, Emmanuel, walks with you.

Peace,

RevKev
