Friday, the Sixth Day of Christmas

Good morning!

We celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus. We read Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14, Psalm 128, Colossians 3:12-17 or 1 John 3:1-2, 21-24, and Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23.

As we celebrate the Holy Family today, we realize that all families have blessings and challenges. God's word helps us come together, stay together, and grow together. Mary and Joseph had their challenges as most families did. Work, supporting the family, moving, children, and parents, all play a role in the home. Can we be patient with one another? Can we carry this from the domestic church, into our parishes, into the universal church? We can all learn, seek forgiveness and be a bit more understanding and patient. May God bless all our families and may we trust in God's guidance and direction.

Peace,

RevKev
