Friday of the Fourth Week
of Advent

Good Morning!

O Antiphon: "O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law: come to save us, Lord our God!"

We celebrate Saint John Kanty. We read Malachi 3:1-4, 23-24, Psalm 25, and Luke 1:57-66. We are almost there. Today is a day of reflection, a day of quiet, where preparations are getting done, people will be arriving and our hearts will be merry. Everyday occurrences still continue. Look around there is a sense of calm, peace, and now action. Have a cup of tea, a cup of coffee, or a cup of hot cocoa. Sit in the presence of the Lord, awaiting the birth, and ponder your name. "What, then, will this child be?" How has this question influenced your life? What will the days ahead bring? How will you enter these next few days?

Peace,
RevKev
