The Intake Process at Redeemed Home

There are several steps that help the staff at Redeemed Home and women who are interested in living in the house to mutually decide if Redeemed Home is a place where she can heal and thrive. The process is outlined below:

1. A referral is made from various community partners (or the woman is self-referred). A Redeemed Home staff member explains that the woman must meet the following basic criteria identified above.
2. If the woman meets all these basic criteria, the staff at the Redeemed Home will send the referring partner/potential applicant an application within 3 days.
3. The woman completes the application and returns it to the Redeemed Home along with a brief summary of her life story (2-3 pages).
4. If there are open spaces at the house, Redeemed Home staff will schedule an assessment. This assessment typically takes 75-90 minutes to complete. If there are no open spaces, the application will be put on a waiting list, to be considered by the date of application when space becomes available.
5. Redeemed Home staff will conduct the assessment and provide the woman with an overview of the expectations for living at the house. A follow-up meeting is scheduled for within 5 days for both parties to communicate the final decision.
6. If both Redeemed Home staff and the woman feel that the house will be a place that she can heal and grow, they will move ahead with setting the arrival date, arranging details of the move and signing any necessary paperwork. If the applicant is currently incarcerated, the decision and details for the move will be communicated via the referring partner. INTAKES INTO THE PROGRAM OCCUR ON MONDAYS AND TUESDAYS OF EACH WEEK.
