

A CLASSIC TWO-YEAR
BIBLE
READING PLAN

The Scripture quotation is taken from the New King James Version®. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

This Bible reading plan is the plan adapted by D.A. Carson from the plan originally compiled by Scottish preacher, Robert Murray M'Cheyne (1813-1843).

In 2005, Ben Edgington copyrighted the M'Cheyne Bible reading plan. In 2010, Ben copyrighted the Carson Bible reading plan.

An Overview of this Bible Reading Plan

Let me say, first of all, that there's no such thing as a bad Bible reading plan. Any plan that has you reading from God's Word on a daily basis is a good plan!

Let me also say that there's no such thing as a perfect Bible reading plan. What might be “just right” for me might be too much reading or too little reading for you.

Some people probably do better with no structured Bible reading plan at all. They prefer to read freely through different books in the Bible. That is a wonderful approach to Bible reading that liberates one from the rigidness of a structured plan. I have done that many times myself and have always been blessed in the process. The danger to that approach, however, is that we might become lazy and undisciplined in our Bible reading and miss what God has for us on a daily basis. For that reason, a structured plan works best for me. I like the discipline. It keeps me reading my Bible even on days when I don't feel like reading it.

In the 1800's, a Scottish preacher named Robert Murray M'Cheyne came up with a wonderful Bible reading plan. His plan takes you through the New Testament and Psalms twice a year and through the rest of the Bible once a year. Many have been blessed by this plan.

In more recent times, D.A. Carson, a well-known Bible scholar, took M'Cheyne's plan and turned it into a two-year plan thus making each day's readings less extensive. Carson's plan takes you through the New Testament and Psalms once a year and through the rest of the Bible in two years. I think his plan hits the "sweet spot" of thoroughness without overwhelming the reader. Carson's adaptation of M'Cheyne's plan is what is contained in this booklet.

My prayer is that this Bible reading plan will be a blessing to you. May God speak to you on each day's readings, and if you get behind, don't let that burden you. We are to be slaves of Jesus, not slaves of a plan. Hopefully, you will be able to catch up fairly quickly if you get behind since the daily readings themselves aren't overwhelming. But if you get behind and can't catch up, then there's no sin in completing this plan in two and a half or even three years. God is not a legalist. He's just pleased that you are doing your best to read from His Word each day.

May the structure of this plan help you, and may the remarks I made in the previous paragraph liberate you to follow a very good Bible reading plan without letting that plan become a burden to you. Certainly, God wouldn't want us to view Bible reading as a burden. He would instead want us to view it as a delight. I pray that will be your experience as you do your best to follow this plan.

May each day's readings be timely, applicable, beneficial, developmental, and edifying. I can assure you that they will be. The Holy Spirit will see to it.

And on those days when you don't feel like you "got anything" out of your Bible reading, don't be discouraged. The seed of God's Word was planted in your heart, and in His time, that seed will grow. So stick with the plan. God will honor you for that. If you'll just keep reading and obeying God's Word, you'll grow spiritually. And truly, that's the reason we read the Bible in the first place...to get to know God more intimately and to become progressively more like His Son, Jesus Christ. That's why we're instructed to desire "the pure milk" of God's Word...that we "may grow" spiritually (I Peter 2:2).

May God speak to you as you read His Word, and may He make you into the person He created you to be. That is my prayer.

With much respect,

Jon Redmond

How to Make Heaven Your Home

If you have never made peace with God by receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Savior, now would be a wonderful time to do so. God loves you, and He has a plan for your life. But you and I have a problem. We have all sinned. Those sins have separated us from God. And those sins must be paid for. That's why God sent His Son, Jesus Christ, to earth...to pay for our sins by dying on the cross. He died. He was buried. But praise God, He rose from the dead! He ascended back to heaven. And one day He's coming back to earth.

But since we don't know when Jesus might return or when we might die, it is wise to give Him our hearts now. If you would like to receive Christ, pray this prayer, and then trust Jesus to save you:

Dear Jesus,

I know that I have sinned. I am sorry. Please forgive me and help me to change. I ask You to come into my heart and save me. I ask You to make me a Christian, and I trust You to do it. Welcome to my heart, Jesus. Begin now to make me the person You want me to be.

In Your Name I Pray,

Amen.
