Matthew 16:13-20

13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Matthew 16:13-20

19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

1 Who do men say - I AM

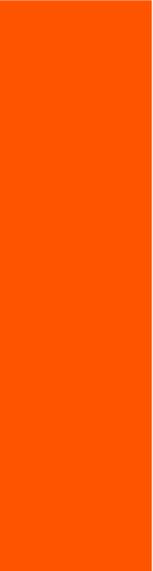

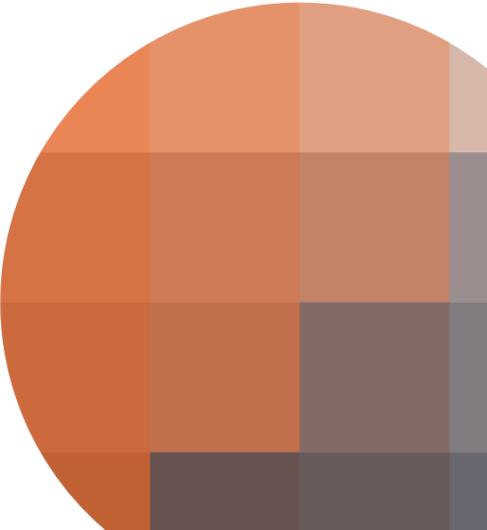

- How is your opinion of who God is shaped by what other people tell you?
- Do you let others define who God is for you?
- How is your faith effected by what someone else said; and who's fault is that?
- At what point do we take responsibility for what we do with that information?

2 Who do you say - I AM

- At some point you begin to form your own opinions about who God is.
- How do you reconcile what someone else told you about God and what you personally believe about God for yourself?
- Where did you get your information from?
- Are you willing to place your faith in what you know or think you know?

3 Who does God say - I AM

- How much of what you know is the result of what God has revealed to you about who he is in the context of your life?
- What men say is questionable.
- What you say is questionable.

- But what God shares and reveals to you of himself is the strong foundation that your faith must be built upon for you to possess the faith and power to prevail against the gates of hell.
 - The keys are principles that God reveals to you from heaven to unlock and lock anything in earth that allows you to walk in victory in the earth.
 - How then do I get the information or revelation, that I need from God that will become the keys to bind on earth and loose in earth?

Matthew 7:6-11

6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

- When you give people things, information or revelation who do not value it, they treat it with contempt, and they wound or hurt you because of their disregard for your treasure.
- When you give holy things to dogs and cast your pearls before swine, the negative affects on you are your fault.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Matthew 7:6-11

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

Psalms 42:1-2

1 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

Psalm 63:1

1 O God, you are my God, earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you, my body longs for you, in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

Psalm 84:2

2 My soul yearns, even faints, for the courts of the Lord ; my heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

Psalm 143:6

6 I spread out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land.

Song of Solomon 2:14

14 My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice; for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.
