Matthew 8:6-13

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

Matthew 8:6-13

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

- The laws and principles of truth operate on higher plane than the facts of our reality.
  - Our greatest struggle is the battle to ignore our reality and employ our spiritual mind and eyes to see that which is unseen.
  - Look at the contrast of Jesus' response to this gentile centurion and his response to his disciples.
  - The Bible says he marveled and was impressed saying among my chosen people, 'I have not seen this level of faith.'

- Is it possible that there are people who are using their faith in response to the laws and principles of the kingdom that are getting things manifested in their lives because they have a better grasp on how the kingdom really operates?
  - It is amazing that this is one of the few times throughout the history of the Bible that God is impressed rather than man being impressed by him.
  - Faith is absolute knowing with no evidence.

Romans 1:20-23

20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

- Faith has to absolutely know that there are powerful laws of an invisible world.
- Faith has to absolutely know that in the realm of the spirit there are unlimited powerful resources that can change a present reality.
- Faith has to absolutely know that this invisible power, knowledge, and wisdom to create is in us.
- Faith must absolutely know that the kingdom of God is at hand.
- Faith must absolutely know the kingdom has come.
- Faith must absolutely know the kingdom is not a place to go, it is the place to be.

Luke 12:32

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Luke 17:20-21

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said,

The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

Ecclesiastes 3:11

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.
