The Mass in Honor of Saint Ignatius is named after Ignatius of Loyola, 1491–1556, founder of the Society of Jesus. This mass uses simple melodic motives that are easy to sing in an unmetered, chant-style setting. It is intended to be sung with a free metered feeling in the style of plainsong and can be performed unaccompanied; with organ and congregation; or with organ, congregation and choir. The choral parts are written to lend a contemporary effect to the monadic chant-like melody.
