

A sung Alleluia may replace the following response.

Refrain

I will praise you, Lord, in the as - sem - bly of your peo - ple, in the as - sem - bly of your peo - ple.

Verses

Psalm 22:26b-27, 28 and 30, 31-32 / 53

1. My vows I will pay before those who fear him. The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
 2. All the earth shall remember and return to the LORD, all families of the nations wor - ship be - fore him.
 3. And my soul shall live for him, my de - scend - ants serve him. They shall tell of the LORD to generations yet to come,

D.C.
 1. They shall praise the LORD, those who seek him. May their hearts live on forev - er and ever!
 2. They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.
 3. declare his saving justice to peoples yet un - born: "These are the things the LORD has done."
 D.C.