Worship Committee:

Being on the Worship Committee for about 12 years has given me the opportunity to participate fully in the life of the church in a spiritually meaningful way. I felt called to serve and I gratefully answered the call. I made many friends and felt a sense of community within the church. It has given my life a purpose. For a hands-on experience of working with the church for the glory of God there is no better place than the Worship Committee.

Communion, ushers, lectors, paraments, Easter and Christmas events are watched over carefully by the Worship Committee.

Communion Guild:

Communion Guild is part of Worship Committee. Two or three volunteers prepare communion elements, set the Table, clean the linens, prepare bread and juice for both services. It is an act of love to prepare the “body and blood” of Christ to be served by the elders and deacons to the congregation. What a blessing that is.
