MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR...

“What does the Holy Spirit mean?” That was a question asked by a Confirmation student one year. “Is the Holy Spirit the same as God and Jesus?” he continued. His questions launched me into talking about the whole notion of the Trinity in the Christian Church and that while the word Trinity isn’t used anywhere in the Bible, it refers to three different expressions of the experience of God as Creator, Jesus and Spirit. I heard myself using an old analogy. “Think of water. We experience the different forms of water. There’s liquid, ice and steam. The idea of Trinity was created to describe three expressions of the one God.” I guess my answer seemed to satisfy him for the moment, but I got to thinking about how difficult it always is to try and explain this thing called the Trinity when we seem to talk far more about God and Jesus than the Holy Spirit, especially in Sunday School (and thank goodness using “Holy Ghost” is out of favor...I can’t imagine what it would be like to try and get kids to wrap their minds around a “Holy Ghost”!).

Every year, on Pentecost Sunday, we formally recognize the energizing nature of God’s Spirit which enlivens and emboldens and calls us greatness. This year, Pentecost Sunday falls on June 9th (the date changes from year to year depending on the date of Easter). The Scripture reading for Pentecost Sunday is traditionally Acts 2 where we read about “the rush of a mighty wind” and “tongues of fire” descending on those from different lands gathered together. Such evocative imagery is nothing to pass over with mild interest. We are talking about an energetic force that is far from tame. One can’t read this passage and come away saying, “oh, isn’t that nice.” Wildly motivating empowerment was witnessed to that day. It’s no wonder that this is what tradition traces to as the official birthday of the Church.

The question for each of us today is: where do we see the motivating empowerment of God’s Spirit, this Spirit which is so holy, so sacred, so divinely fresh and new? I think these words of Wm. Paul Young capture it best. “The work of the Holy Spirit in our lives is to reveal to us the truth of our being so that the way of our being can match it.” Take your time and read those words again! I don’t know about you, but I hear in that something so profound. How difficult it is to access the truth of our being as beloved children of God. And, if we could authentically access it, it stands to reason that the way of our being in the world would naturally reflect such beautiful truth of our being! It certainly takes more than willpower, or personal commitment, or discipline to see the beloved truth of our being as a wildly, unfathomably, preciously loved one of God. That’s why we need help. Enter...the Holy Spirit. Our job is to be open vessels for such good work which can’t be accomplished by ourselves. And, the good work of matching our way of being with this truth of our being is also not a DIY project either. Enter, once again...the Holy Spirit!

May you find the openness needed for all the good and enlivening work I’ve just described. Perhaps the words of this well-known song can guide all of us.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Faithfully Yours, Barbara

The Sacrament of Communion,

June 2nd, 2019

The Sacrament of Communion will be celebrated in our Sanctuary. If you are wondering whether or not to participate, be assured that you are invited and encouraged to share in Communion as one who loves Christ and seeks to walk with Him.

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

The Executive Board of Wilson Memorial Union Church has called for a Special Congregational Meeting after the morning Worship Service, June 9, 2019. The purpose of this meeting is to vote on calling the Rev. Michael Droege as Associate Pastor. You are encouraged to attend!

A MESSAGE FROM OUR YOUTH DIRECTOR...

Happy June! I don’t know if you feel like I do, but June always feels like an excited blur. So much good happening and being anticipated with both finishing seasons well and looking forward to the gifts of the summer. We ended another year of Sunday School with gratitude to our teaching staff: Yvette Whitley, Lisa Shpunder, Carol Droege, Laurie Conley, Lori Goucher, Kim Nunn, and Thomas Henry. Every week they faithfully gathered our young members to teach them Bible stories and connect them to our larger congregation through activities during coffee hour. They are so appreciated. Doing faith formation in our busy culture is a challenge, but their commitment is an encouragement and challenge for us all.

We are well into VBS season now! If you have been wanting to have a part in VBS but have not seen Carol Droege yet to sign up, this is the time! She will begin leaders’ meetings shortly. Keep an eye out for registration information that will be coming this month!

Our week-long participation for Urban Promise in Camden is closed, but there is still time to participate either as a supporter or day-tripper. Our annual Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser will be in the form of LUNCH after our congregational meeting on June 9th. It is such a full day at Wilson we didn’t want to ask people to come back, so we are just making it right here! Stay for a lunch of Spaghetti, bread, and salad and support our congregation’s trip to learn about and support the work in Camden, NJ on August 4th-8th. We hope that your summer is filled with joy and celebration! Blessings Michael

A MESSAGE FROM OUR BOARD PRESIDENT...

I am delighted to announce that the Executive Board of Wilson Memorial Church has offered our dear Pastor Barbara a well-deserved and long overdue opportunity for renewal in the form of a sabbatical, which will likely take place this fall. This three-month leave, the focus of which will be at her discretion, is intended to permit her a moment to step off the proverbial treadmill of her many day to day responsibilities and allow time for inner reflection and growth. A gift from a loving congregation, we hope to provide her with a restful yet vocationally revitalizing experience. In her absence, Michael will be available to cover necessary pastoral duties. Details will follow as plans develop, but in the meantime, please join me in wishing Barbara a refreshing experience of renewal. In faith, Angela Della Ventura

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE MAY 13 EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING...

Pastor's Report: Barbara reflected on a meaningful Holy Week and beautiful Easter. Once again, the choir and brass musicians added to the joy of the morning and we continue to thank the Fraternity for funding the brass musicians each year! It was great to have the lilies everyone donated and many thanks go to Russ and Robin Leffert for arranging them year after year.

The weekend of April 26th she was away for more Grief Training. Barbara was happy to learn about a new program from the Grief Recovery Institute: Helping Children with Loss, with an accompanying book, Helping Children Grieve. This is a four part program for adults to learn how to best help children cope and deal with loss in their lives. She would like to share this program in the future.

From Barbara's vantage point, we had a terrific time hosting Susan Sparks, May 4. The team who worked on this was nothing short of dynamic! Susan Sparks was lovely to host and extremely personable. While it would have been wonderful to make a little bit more for Outreach than we did (we made $300), She believes the event was really worth doing. We gained a lot of visibility in the area especially through social media postings and printed press.

Youth and Family Ministries Report: Michael was away at a conference in London and was not able to report.

Plans for June: Barbara will be doing an afternoon book group on Susan Spark's book Laugh Your Way to Grace on June 5, 12 and 19 (Wednesdays at 1pm).

We will be finalizing the Photo Directory, with the first two Sundays in June available, for church families to come in to have photos taken and verify their contact information.

CHAPEL WEDNESDAY...

The next Chapel Wednesday will be June 5th in the Chapel. This is a contemplative time of music, spoken reflection, guided meditation and silence. The theme will be, "Again, Silence". Join us!

LAUGH YOUR WAY TO GRACE BY SUSAN SPARKS BOOK GROUP...

You are invited to celebrate the healing power of humor by reading and discussing Susan Sparks' entertaining book! This will be a day group and will meet on Wednesdays, June 5, June 12, June 19 at 1pm. Please let Barbara know if you are interested.

SUSAN SPARKS OUTREACH BENEFIT EVENT...

On May 4th, Wilson Memorial warmly welcomed Reverend Susan Sparks, Senior Pastor at Madison Avenue Baptist Church, NYC and the author of Laugh Your Way to Grace, for a wonderful evening of laughter and community. We sold about 125 tickets, receiving additional donations either through booklet ad sales or by direct donations. Many bakers from our congregation provided treats for after the show, where all had the opportunity to buy Susan's book and have it signed. Susan generously donated 20% of the book proceeds of the evening. This fundraiser was to help boost our church Outreach budget, and while it brought in around $300, the advertising through print, social media and word of mouth brought in folks from all over the area, including members from our local ICCC Eastern Zone region. In addition to benefiting our outreach, we shared a wonderful experience in our church with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Many thanks to those that dedicated their time and skills to this project. A great team came together to work out all the many details such as social media, advertising, printing, ad sales, ticket sales via the web and in church, along with the bakers in our church who provided the desserts for the event. Lorri Monetti

VBS UPDATE...

We are so excited to bring Wildwood Forest to Wilson Memorial for VBS from July 8- 12th! We will be having two informational meetings for those interested in being on staff; Tuesday June 4th and Thursday, June 27. Both meetings will begin at 7:30 pm.

If you have any time during VBS week and would like to plug into this important ministry to the community, please see Carol Droege or contact her at Veggietalelady@hotmail.com.

SUMMER MUSICIANS...

As summer quickly approaches, we are looking for people to share their talents during Sunday morning worship services. We encourage all musicians, from singers to instrumentalists, to consider taking one of the summer Sundays. Roberta and I are available to accompany if needed. We would especially like some of our talented youth to consider volunteering. To explore this opportunity, just contact me at jwmusacchio@gmail.com as soon as possible. I can promise you, you will never find people more appreciative than your church family. Jim Musacchio, Music Director

A BIG THANK YOU!

On behalf of the Wilson Memorial Choir, I would like to thank all the members of the congregation, the church board, and staff who have supported us during this past season. Your kind expressions of appreciation for our music has made us swell with pride.

Our accomplishments have been achieved due to the generous gift from the Boyd and Jeannette Woodruff Trust that allowed us to hire our wonderful singers, Paul Flood, James Harris, and Sophia Mortensen. So many of you have made a point of telling me, as well as other members of the choir, how much our hired singers have helped to enhance our already talented and dedicated volunteers.

The Woodruff Trust gift will only be able to extend this program through the rest of 2019. After that, the funding for these choir positions will be up to all of us. Jim Musacchio, Music Director

WOMEN'S GUILD

The Women's Guild will hold their June Potluck Picnic on June 6th at noon. Everyone is invited to bring a dish to share. Beverages will be supplied.
