

WELCOME

Football was more important to him than his wife. In fact, he was quoted as saying, "Football is No. 1 in my life. My family is No. 2. If anyone wants to get close to me, they have to honor that." On the day he was hired as an NFL coach, he took his wife to supper and "fired her." He told her he could be a head football coach or a husband. He chose coach. To that moment they had been married 25 years.

Contrast that story with the legendary Tom Landry, head football coach of the Dallas Cowboys for 26 years. During his time as the head coach, the Cowboys won their division 13 times, went to the Super Bowl 5 times—winning it twice. For 21 straight years the Cowboys were a winning franchise, setting an NFL record for the most consecutive winning seasons in a row that still stands today. When asked what made him so successful, Coach Landry said, "The thrill of knowing Jesus is the greatest thing that ever happened to me... I think God has put me in a very special place, and He expects me to use it to His glory in everything I do...whether coaching football or talking to the press, I'm always a Christian. Christ is first, family second, football third."

Wow. What great priorities. By the way, the coach who divorced his wife was also a coach of the Dallas Cowboys. It was Tom Landry's successor, Jimmy Johnson. While he may have won a couple championships, he never enjoyed the coaching success of his predecessor, quitting after only 9 years.

What are your priorities? Is Jesus #1?

»» SERMON SERIES

There is a phenomenon that continues to grow in almost every country of the world: It's called the Coffee Shop. What is it that continually draws people to small, usually crowded places, to purchase over-priced beverages? Is it that people just love giving $5 for a cup of coffee, or is there something more? The coffee shop has become a center of influence in today's society. What can we learn from this Phenomenon? In this new teaching series from Pastor Ben, we will study the Scriptures to see how Jesus introduced an authentic spirituality and Christian experience that people gladly stood in line for. We will make our church a center of influence as we discover what God is brewing to satisfy that deep, down spiritual longing--and He won't even make us stand in line.
