

WELCOME

If I have a food weakness—it's bakeries. When I have traveled Europe and the Middle East, I have been tempted, allured, and drawn to the smells and tempting tastes of yummy breads, pastries, and treats. When we lived in the Pacific Northwest, we discovered a doughnut shop with made-fresh-daily options. Bear claws, crullers, long johns, eclairs, jellied, frosted, glazed, sprinkled, and traditional...

A just a half mile from there was another bakery with fresh assortments of breads, muffins, and scones. Needless to say, I made many trips to both. Often times is Dominic and Siena were with me and we would eat a doughnut or a portion of an olive oil and rosemary loaf of bread that was still warm from the oven. The savory flavors exploding on our tastebuds caused silence in the car as we enjoyed the treats.

Those experiences remind me of another bakery—God's bakery, where He invites us to "Taste and see [as if for the first time!] that the Lord is good" (Psalm 34:8). Sometimes in our spiritual lives we lose the pleasure, delight, and satisfaction of our Christian experience. Perhaps it's too salty, or too spicy, or too bland. But Jesus calls us to taste Him again, and see just how Sweet the experience can be.

I pray that as you worship with us today, that your experience will be fresh, warm, and sweet. Welcome to Springdale Adventist Fellowship. Welcome to Worship.

OZARK FAMILY CAMPMEETING | May 30-June 1

Camp Meeting is a time of spiritual renewal and renewal. It's a time when folks from the larger body of Christ can gather together, reminding us that we are part of a larger organization, with a bigger mission, and an incredible reward (heaven). This years featured speakers are Shawn Boonstra—Voice of Prophecy ministry, James Black—the NAD Staff Chaplain, and others. Full information can be found at www.gentryadventist.org.

Following church in Gentry at noon Sabbath, SAF will once again meet under the big oak tree for our annual potluck. Bring a picnic food for the potluck and also chairs/blankets for your family.

»» SERMON SERIES

There is a phenomenon that continues to grow in almost every country of the world: It's called the Coffee Shop. What is it that continually draws people to small, usually crowded places, to purchase over-priced beverages? Is it that people just love giving $5 for a cup of coffee, or is there something more? The coffee shop has become a center of influence in today's society. What can we learn from this Phenomenon? In this new teaching series from Pastor Ben, we will study the Scriptures to see how Jesus introduced an authentic spirituality and Christian experience that people gladly stood in line for. We will make our church a center of influence as we discover what God is brewing to satisfy that deep, down spiritual longing--and He won't even make us stand in line.
