

WELCOME

BEWARE OF MONDAYS!

Years ago, the Reader's Digest reported that more people die on Monday than any other day. More men die suddenly of heart disease on Monday than on any other day of the week, reports a group of University of Manitoba researchers in the Journal of the American Medical Association. Your heart also knows about TGIF (Thank God It's Friday), because that's the workday when the fewest men die of heart attacks. A long-term follow-up study of nearly 4,000 men found that 38 had died of sudden heart attacks on Monday while only 15 died on Friday. For men with no history of heart disease, Monday was particularly dangerous. Among that group, an average of 8.2 heart attack deaths occurred on each of the other six days of the week, while nearly three times as many occurred on Monday.

"Psychological stress has been related to sudden cardiac death, and it may be that return to work serves as a stressor," says Dr. Simon W. Rabkin, one of the researchers. But being at home on Blue Monday didn't help much either, since 46.7% of the fatal heart attacks occurring in the home also happened on Monday.

After reading information like that, I'm glad for Sabbath. A day for rest and restoration. Because research also show that folks who keep the Sabbath, tend to have less overall stress in their lives. Welcome to Springdale Adventist Fellowship this Sabbath. May the peace and healing of the Lord Jesus Christ be felt in your life this day.

INVITE YOUR ONE | September 6

September 6 we begin a 15 part endeavor to tell the story of Jesus in a new and creative way. Who could you invite to come? Here are 3 reasons to invite someone to this big event: 1) Jesus invited you. You were invited to follow Jesus, and He has asked us to bring others to Him. 2) Inviting someone will usher you into a new spiritual adventure. When you don't invite someone to come, you miss out on one of life's most incredible opportunities – being able to play a role in someone's life transformation. Being used by God to introduce someone to forgiveness, peace and ultimate purpose?! There's nothing more rewarding or energizing! 3) It will give the people you invite the opportunity to make a more informed decision about church and Jesus and eternity. Prior to your invitation, they are making assessments based on what they've heard, on the media, and other portrayals of religion. Give them an opportunity to rethink things from personal experience and trust God with the process.

These popular phrases or ways of thinking are in direct conflict with what Scriptures actually teaches. This 5-week series looks at different phrases the Bible doesn't actually say, comparing them to what the Bible actually does say.
