

WELCOME

Graffiti originally written in the 1800s was discovered in July, 1994, when workers removed marble wainscoting in the lobby as part of a $500,000 renovation to the monument. The tone of this graffiti was significantly different in type and tone than what is typically found on the sides of buildings, railroad cars, and bridges.

“Whoever is the human instrument under God in the conversion of one soul, erects a monument to his own memory more lofty and enduring (sic) than this,” reads the inscription.

It is signed BFB. No one knows who that is, or who left the small drawings and 19th century dates on other walls. The markings in the lobby of the monument were covered over when it was decorated at the turn of the last century. However, today, they can readily be read by all who visit the monument.

I remember as a kid being taught that I would have a jewel in my crown for every person I brought to Jesus. I was also taught that everyone who went to heaven would have at least one Jewel in their crown. It seems to me that's a monument worth building. Welcome to SAF. Welcome to Worship. I pray you are blessed here today.

SAS NEW LOGO

Last Sunday morning, the constituents of the Springdale Adventist School voted on a new logo for the school. We believe it's important to create a new story for our storied school as we continue to grow and prepare young people for the future and eternity. Check this black and white preview to the right:

BE THE SWITCH

Living Your Calling While Living Your Life

Everyday, people live lives that they feel do not have a purpose. What happens when Christians struggle with the question, "What is my purpose?" Or, "How can God use me? I'm a nobody!"

As believers in Christ, we all have a calling. And while that calling may not be to go to Africa or enter into full-time pastoral ministry, your calling is still very much relevant and ever-so important. In this series we're going to take a look at what it means to make an impact right where you are in your life and how to discover what you're called to do.

Get ready to be the switch!
